CUP21 g 36/11 (b)

To the Worthy and Independent ELECTORS of the City and Liberties of WESTMINSTER.

GENTLEMEN,

THE malicious and groundleſs Reports which have been ſpread, make it neceſſary for me to aſſure you, that notwithſtanding all that has been ſaid, I never have ſupported, nor ever will ſupport, any Meaſure which can by any Means be prejudicial to the Proteſtant Religion, or in any way tend to eſtabliſh Popery in this Kingdom. I am,

GENTLEMEN,

With great Reſpect,

Your faithful and

obliged humble Servant,

C. J. FOX.

St. James's Street,
Sept. 14th 1780.